

Explore SORRENTO

There is so much to see and do in Sorrento, with many of the activities only a short walk away from the Searoad Ferries Terminal. For brochures and local advice or to discover more about the 'Sorrento-Portsea Artists' Trail, pop in to the Sorrento Visitor Centre. For information about Sorrento's rich history and to follow the Heritage Walk, visit the Nepean Historical Society.

Fun Facts:
 In 1803 Sullivan Bay became the site of Victoria's first mainland European settlement - that's 30 years before the founding of Melbourne.
 Millionaires Walk is named for the stunning mansions that line the cliff top walk of one of Australia's richest postcode areas!
